The Pirates of Meleoon Christine E. Schulze

"True peace is not the absence of conflict, but of inner conflict..." Elia was fascinated by the charming, adventurous stranger, Captain Jack Rocket. But he is, at once, both more and less of a stranger than she realizes. His name isn't really Jack Rocket. It's James Roquette. He's not really a captain on one of her father's ships but of the magical Sun Catcher, the most notorious pirate ship in the waters surrounding the Meleoon Archipelago. James longs for the quiet, respectable life of a gentleman as much as Elia longs for a life of adventure outside the castle walls. Oh, and he just happens to be her long-lost brother as well. Together, can they recapture the Moon Vessel and rescue Elia's fiancé, Nicolai, while unraveling the many dark secrets of their past? And can Elia show James that it's not through material wealth and stability that true peace can be found, but through the love and salvation of Christ?
