WELCOME STUDENTS, PROFESSIONALS, AND CLIENTS,

On behalf of the AMB Training and Consulting development team we would like to welcome you to our online training program. We provide online distance education courses via web training and seminar, self-paced workbooks and strategy booklets that offer informational theory, assignments, and quizzes.

This portion of our program is our working curriculum, which provides students, professionals, and business owners workbooks on topics relevant to authors, artists, and a business professionals needs in developing, and marketing their products of service.

You have just purchased course number 1, "The Book Description," from our Publishing core curriculum. Each department of learning offers 10 mini seminars and workbooks geared to help our students and clients understand and begin to use the tools provided within these pages to effectively produce marketable products.

Again, welcome to AMB Training and Consulting.

WHAT SELLS?

Would you believe that the line between you becoming a national bestseller could be based upon your book's description? An author's most important seller's point of a book is its cover and description.

In this course we will discuss, what a description is, why the Description of a product is so important, the components of a book's/product description, sample working description pieces, writing exercise, and comprehension overview.
