Create customized play-based interventions that help children make real progress across four domains—sensorimotor, emotional and social, communication, and cognitive. With Transdisciplinary Play-Based Intervention, Second Edition (TPBI2), early childhood professionals will learn how to

- address global outcomes as well as specific functional processes and behaviors as targets for intervention
- scaffold intervention with a continuum of approaches, ranging from adult-directed to child-directed
- support caregivers and children in learning strategies and skills to use throughout the day in natural environments
- encourage generalization of skills across contexts and environments
- evaluate child progress

The thoroughly updated second edition of TPBI2 features

- Strong foundation in DEC and NAEYC guidelines
- OSEP child outcomes crosswalk
- Expanded content on critical topics such as literacy, vision, hearing, and daily living skills
- Explicit links between assessment and intervention

With TPBI2, professionals will find it even easier to conduct effective, practical interventions that really improve young children's outcomes.
