Slave Testimony: Two Centuries of Letters, Speeches, Interviews, and Autobiographies

Slave Testimony, is a large collection of two centuries of wide-ranging documents, illustrations, notes and annotated and authenticated accounts of slaves; including slaves of Thomas Jefferson, Robert E. Lee, Henry Clay, and many others. The slaves speak for themselves about their culture, plantation life, food, clothing, and shelter, the sexual exploitation of slave women, and the psychological response to bondage. The views given are those of house servants and field hands, docile slaves and rebels, urban and rural slaves, slaves with kind masters and those with cruel ones.
