Pattyn's father is dead. Now she's on the run in this riveting companion to the New York Times bestselling Burned.

Pattyn Von Stratten's father is dead, and Pattyn is on the run. After far too many years of abuse at the hands of her father, and after the tragic loss of her beloved Ethan and their unborn child, Pattyn is desperate for peace. Only her sister Jackie knows what happened that night, but she is stuck at home with their mother, who clings to normalcy by allowing the truth to be covered up by their domineering community leaders. Her father might be finally gone, but without Pattyn, Jackie is desperately isolated.

Alone and in disguise, Pattyn starts a new life as a migrant worker on a California ranch. But is it even possible to rebuild a life when everything you've known has burned to ash and lies seem far safer than the truth?

Bestselling author Ellen Hopkins continues the riveting story of Pattyn Von Stratten she began in Burned to explore what it takes to rise from the ashes, put ghosts to rest, and step into a future.

Scott Manuel:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their leisure activity. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Smoke can make you sense more interested to read.
