Hot Laps (Racing on the Edge) (Volume 6) Shey Stahl

It's not always about the win. Sometimes it's about the hot laps you learn from. He's rarely taken seriously ... she's never taken seriously. Casten Riley is living his life the way most kinds only dream. Working for the family business, he's never had much to worry about. And, if he did, he's not the type to worry. He's adorable as some would say, sharp, witty, and never shy. He's a ladies man just looking for fun. Casten has the kind of heart that make you feel more than you ever thought possible ... just by being him. And then a girl happens. That's when Hayden Harris, a new employee at CST Engines, comes crashing into his life. The two are introduced and immediately find ways to tease each other. She's full of spark, humor, and is the only girl who can make him blush. Hayden and Casten quickly become friends and find their attraction for each other is anything but playful. Casten won't admit Hayden has a hold on him and Hayden doesn't want to admit Casten Riley has pegged her red line. But the sparks that are generated by their connection is not what these two are expecting.
