The majestic monuments of Washington, D.C., and the famed National Gallery provide the setting for a crazy collision of art and urban life in this inventive companion to You Can't Take a Balloon Into The Metropolitan Museum. It all starts with a little girl's trip to view the museum's treasures and the parallel journey of her runaway balloon. Floating past the Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial, White House, and many other landmarks, the balloon's adventures seem to mirror the paintings and sculptures raptly viewed by the wide-eyed little girl. An introduction to both our nation's capital and our national museum's art treasures, You Can't Take a Balloon Into The National Gallery once again "captures all the energy and charm of a captivating city."--Publishers Weekly on You Can't Take a Balloon into the Metropolitan Museum
