Come...Follow Me! Robert Dies

Come..Follow Me!, is a true story of a poor disabled-indigent-homeless man, who fought to survive in the homeless world, after being denied Social Security Disability benefits, by over-zealous "state actors", both State and Governmental officials.

"The homeless world: where your mind has nothing but time, and time has nothing but your mind. Your seconds turn into minutes, your minutes turn into hours, and your hours are a meaningless trip from morning until night. Then nightfall comes, like a jailer, to lock you up in your already dark and lonely world, from which there seems to be no escape."

On behalf of many American citizens who are treated in a like manner, when dealing with flagrantly over-zealous State and Government officials, which overstep their authority, this book is packed full of word pictures about our society today, and how over-zealous state representatives treat the disabled and the poor. For those of you who have not experienced the agonies and the deprivations of life; I invite you to follow along beside me...as I, Robert W. Dies, take you by the hand, so that you may see and experience a life, which you could very easily find yourself in: AT SOME FUTURE UNEXPECTED TIME
