Red Eden: A Vision of Mars Gregory Simay, Michael White, R.J. Johnson

The year is 2101.

Earth is in environmental and social breakdown.

Decades earlier, farsighted Native Americans had left Earth and established a new home on Mars, turning it into a "Red Eden."

All remains peaceful and prosperous until a criminal cabal from Earth arrives with one goal: to seize control of the newly-transformed Mars.

Among those coming of age on Mars is teenager Takenya. Her destiny as her people's savior has been foretold...although her troubled past may be her undoing.

With the aid of her vision guide Lozen, and the reemergence of a Martian race thought long dead, Takenya and her people will fight to save their new homeland.

And perhaps history will not repeat itself.
