Grace received ...Grace given I Will Love You ANY Way – is a collection of reasons some may feel different than, or apart from, others. Maybe you know someone who is like a child in this story book, maybe you are like one of them. Have you ever been the recipient of cruel comments, hurtful stares or out and out bullying because of the way you look, how you're dressed or because of a health problem you can't help? If so, please know I will love you ANY way, and He will love you more. Could it be that you've been the one doing these unkind things to others? You must realize that no one is perfect and now is the time to stop. Being compassionate is much more rewarding. I will love you ANY way, and He will love you more... Just imagine if people were more 'intentionally' kind and loving to everyone, but especially to 'the least of these', what a much nicer, more gracious world we would live in. Give Grace ...
