A Sprig of Holly J.A. Clement

A short story from the charity anthology Christmas Lites.

Greta lives with her grandfather in a cabin in the mountains. The winter is harsh and they are running short of wood. Their handsome neighbour Matthias would help - but he is still trying to get back from the town.

Greta and her grandfather must venture out into the snow to cut more wood or freeze to death, but when disaster strikes, who can help them? Will she ever see Matthias again?

And what is the significance of the little sprig of holly?
