Torrid - Book Three -- The stunning conclusion to the sexy, scorching hot Torrid Trilogy

Finding the truth was only half the battle...

Jack - Everyone warned me. I should have listened. I tried so hard to protect Tora I didn't realize I was the one about to be destroyed. I never saw it coming. But even now, even when she's taken away the one thing I thought mattered most, she's still all I think about. I still can't breathe unless she's near me. I still want her. Except now it's too late.

Tora - If I'd known what was going to happen, would I have changed anything? Would I have played it differently? I'll probably ask myself that for the rest of my life. I sacrificed my future for the past and I'll have to live with that. My passion for Jack burned so bright it consumed me, blinded me so I couldn't see what was coming. Now, getting to the truth might just have cost us both everything.

Winning the war means opening your heart.

This is the final thrilling installment in a sizzling new romantic suspense series by Jayne Blue.
